

Facilitating individual & organization self-awareness, growth & transition

Craig Coble
Action Learning Coach, Seminar Leader

Craig Coble has over 15 years of entrepreneurial experience and has developed the skills and ability to start successful businesses both independently and within Corporate America. He has also established himself as a successful international facilitator/coach. In 2000, Craig joined C-TECH, a health and skin care company headquartered in Hong Kong. As a Regional Manager for Southeast Asia, Craig increased sales by over 200% by developing a distribution network and training his sales force. Traveling extensively throughout China, Malaysia, Singapore and Indonesia, he conducted, workshops, seminars. Upon his return, Craig started Coble Consulting Inc. Today, he facilitates training workshops for The Washington Post, Industrial Bank of Washington, Calvert Investments and other financial and non profit institutions. Craig specializes in Leadership, Communication, Managerial Development, Career Enhancement, Motivational and Diversity topics. Craig is also certified in MBTI, Achieve Global and Emotional Intelligence. Most recently, Craig obtained his certification as an Action Learning Coach and is quickly gaining international recognition. In September Craig facilitated MBTI and Action Learning in Bermuda. In November 2007 Craig gave a presentation and sit on a panel discussion for Action Learning at the Asia Action Learning Conference in Kobe Japan. From there Craig facilitated Change Leadership for the British Embassy in Tokyo. Coble Consulting Inc. is an active member of the Greater Washington Area Board of Trade.