

Facilitating individual & organization
self-awareness, growth & transition

Alberto Rossi
Strategic/Tactical Business Planning,
Seminar Leader, Action Learning Coach

Mr. Rossi background, experience, and professional goals, have served to draw him to specializing in organizational growth, learning and transition, with the goal of finding and developing a dynamic competitive advantage.

Mr. Rossi has designed and delivered, on-site interventions, workshops, and classroom training for prestigious Pharmaceutical, Utility, Banking, Education and Non Profit firms.

Most recent interventions have been focused on large system change, team building and problem solving.

Mr. Rossi is co-leading a Future Search Project focused on Water Quality in Beijing that will take place in 2009 in collaboration with Pepperdine University, local and international NGOs and major private industry players.

Before specializing in Organization Development Mr. Rossi worked as a Management Consultant for Net Present Value SpA in the areas of Strategy, and Strategic Marketing and Organization with prestigious Italian and multinational organization. He worked side by side with the client's management to design and deploy strategic organizational changes and to support the transition process.

Mr. Rossi is a graduate in Business and Economics at Universita' Cattolica del Sacro Cuore (Italy) with part of his studies done at Université Catholique de Louvain (Belgium).

He currently attends the Master of Science program in Organization Development at Pepperdine University George L. Graziadio School of Business and Management.

Mr. Rossi is a Certified Coach in Action Learning, by the World Institute of Action Learning.