

" Reawakening the Relationship"

A Weekend Retreat for Couples

Make an investment in your most important lifetime relationship!

Join <sup>The</sup> GREYSTONE CONSULTING GROUP, Inc. staff in a workshop designed to renew or rejuvenate the body, mind, and spirit connection between couples.

We will initiate and encourage the re-discovery of open conversation; conversations that are essential in nurturing and sustaining intimate relationships; conversations that we all slowly forget to make a priority in our daily lives. We will bring clear focus to understanding and appreciating the natural differences in individual temperaments that influence your heart connection. We'll explore dialogue techniques that create enhanced self-perception and a deeper consciousness and appreciation of your partner's unique perspectives. We will simplify, slow down, and reconnect by exploring and rekindling the true human spirit of your relationship.

It's not about counseling, it's about connecting

It's not about fixing, it's about finding.

- ♥ Gain new insights into the mystery and art of authentic, intimate conversation – even if you can only give it ten minutes a day.
- ♥ Learn what makes you tick, what makes your partner tick, and why you both get ticked off - more importantly, what to do about it.
- ♥ Practice simple ways to ask for what you want and need with the best possible chance of getting it.

*Find a man with an open heart and a woman with an open mind.
Put them in a room together for one hour and you won't be able to pry them apart.*
